About Your GRE® Score Report

Score Reporting Policies

With the ScoreSelect® option, you can decide which test scores to send to the institutions you designate. There are three options to choose from:

- Most Recent option – Send your scores from your most recent test administration
- All option – Send your scores from all administrations in the last five years
- Any option – Send your scores from one OR as many test administrations in the last five years (this option is not available on test day when you select up to four FREE score reports)

Scores for a test administration must be reported in their entirety. Institutions will receive score reports that show only the scores that you selected to send to them. There will be no special indication if you have taken additional GRE tests. See the GRE® Information Bulletin for details. The policies and procedures explained in the Bulletin for the current testing year supersede previous policies and procedures in previous bulletins.

Scores will be sent to designated score recipients approximately 10-15 days after a computer-delivered test and 5 weeks after a paper-delivered test. If your scores are not available for any reason, you will see “Not Available” in Your Test Score History.

GRE test scores are reportable according to the following policies:

- For tests taken prior to July 1, 2016, scores are reportable for five (5) years following the testing year in which you tested (July 1 – June 30). For example, scores for a test taken on May 15, 2015, are reportable through June 30, 2020. GRE scores earned prior to August 2011 are no longer reportable.
- For tests taken on or after July 1, 2016, scores are reportable for five (5) years following your test date. For example, scores for a test taken on July 3, 2016, are reportable through July 2, 2021.

Note: Score recipients will only receive scores from test administrations that you have selected to send to them.

Percentile Rank (% Below)

A percentile rank for a test score indicates the percentage of test takers who took that test and received a lower score. Regardless of when the reported scores were earned, the percentile ranks for General Test and Subject Test scores are based on the scores of all test takers who tested within the most recent three-year period.

Retaking a GRE Test

You can take the GRE® General Test once every 21 days, up to five times within any continuous rolling 12-month period (365 days). This applies even if you canceled your scores on a test taken previously. You can take the paper-delivered GRE General Test and GRE® Subject Tests as often as they are offered.

Note: This policy will be enforced even if a violation is not immediately identified (e.g., inconsistent registration information) and test scores have been reported. In such cases, the invalid scores will be canceled and score recipients will be notified of the cancellation. Test fees will be forfeited.

For the Quantitative, Verbal, Total and Analytical Writing sections, the percentages shown below represent the proportion of tests taken in the previous three years with reported scores lower than this score. The percentage shown below for the new Integrated Reasoning section represents the proportion of IR tests taken so far with reported scores lower than this score. This percentage is updated monthly for the first six months and annually thereafter.

- C (Self canceled) -Test taker voluntarily canceled the score on the day of the test. Your score report includes all exams taken within the past five years from your most recent exam date. If you have self-canceled any exams during this time, your score report will include the self-canceled notation ("C"), however, no information about a self-canceled exam will be sent to schools.
- P (Policy Violation)-GMAC® canceled the score due to a testing policy violation by the test taker. Policy violation for purposes of this identifier includes improperly accessing a mobile phone or study materials, disruptive behavior that interfered with other test takers or test center personnel or noncompliance with any term or condition in the GMAT Handbook, the GMAT Examination Testing Rules and Agreement, or the GMAT Non-Disclosure Agreement and General Terms of Use Statement, other than incidents which are characterized as "serious violations," as defined at right.
- T (Testing issue) -GMAC canceled the score due to an issue that affected the administration of the test. Examples include, but are not limited to, administrative errors, equipment problems, issues related to registration or payment, and disruptions caused by illness, natural disasters or other emergencies.
- S (Serious violation)-GMAC canceled the score because of a discrepancy in, or falsification of, a test taker's identification; improper access to or any disclosure of test content prior to, during, or after the test administration; proxy testing; or falsification of score reports. (The use of "serious violation" for this purpose is not intended to minimize the significance or seriousness of other violations of GMAT testing rules.)
- ~ (Not Available)-Score is missing because the GMAT did not include an Integrated Reasoning section prior to June 5, 2012.

Answers to Frequently Asked Questions

What does the GMAT exam measure?

The GMAT exam measures basic verbal, mathematical, analytical writing, and integrated reasoning skills that you have developed over a long period of time in your education and work. The Integrated Reasoning section requires candidates to interpret and analyze information from different sources and in a variety of formats to solve complex reasoning tasks. The Verbal section measures your ability to understand and evaluate what you read, as well as your ability to recognize basic conventions of standard written English. The Quantitative section tests quantitative reasoning ability. The Analytical Writing Assessment section measures your ability to think critically and communicate complex ideas in writing. Your GMAT scores should not be compared with other test scores. Although the GMAT score scales may resemble those used for other tests, the scores are not directly related.

What doesn't the GMAT exam measure?

It does not measure your knowledge of business, your job skills, or subjective qualities such as motivation, creativity, and interpersonal skills. If a test taker's first language is not English, he or she may still perform well on the exam; however, the GMAT exam may not accurately reflect the abilities of someone who is not proficient in English.

How are the Analytical Writing Assessment scores used?

The Analytical Writing Assessment is used to provide an independent ranking of your ability to think critically and to communicate clearly when writing in English. Writing scores are computed separately from the scores for the multiple-choice sections of the test and have no effect on the Verbal, Quantitative, or Total scores.

What do GMAT scores predict?

GMAT scores are a valid predictor of academic performance in the first year of a graduate management program. Since creating the GMAT exam 50 years ago, we have conducted hundreds of validity studies that demonstrate this fact. In the past ten years, we've conducted almost 300 studies for graduate management programs all over the world. The median correlation between GMAT scores and first-year grades was 0.51 (perfect correlation is 1.0). The median correlation between undergraduate grade point average and first-year grades was 0.28. Thus, GMAT scores are generally a better predictor of performance in the first year of business school than undergraduate grades, though we advise admissions committees to use both when evaluating candidates.

How reliable are GMAT scores?

Test scores actually earned on any given occasion are only an approximation of your true ability. However, our research indicates that you will most likely earn a Total score within about 30 points of a score reflecting your true ability. Your Verbal and Quantitative scores are probably within 2.9 points of your true scores. If you take the GMAT exam more than once, you probably will not receive exactly the same scores. "Reliability" indicates the degree to which you would keep the same score if you were to take the test more than once (perfect reliability is 1.00). The average reliability of the GMAT Total score is 0.93. Average reliability is 0.87 for the Verbal score and 0.90 for the Quantitative score. Therefore, the reliability of GMAT scores is very high.

How long are my GMAT scores valid?

Scores are usually reported up to five years from the date you took the exam. With a special request and for an additional fee, you may report scores up to 10 years from the date you took the exam. However, scores more than five years old will be accompanied by a statement indicating that they must be interpreted with care; many institutions will not accept scores over five years old. On behalf of GMAC, Pearson VUE destroys all score records more than 10 years old.

How should my scores be used?

Admissions committees typically use GMAT scores in conjunction with your academic record(s) and other information obtained from application materials. Unlike academic grades--which vary in meaning according to the grading standards of each school--GMAT scores are based on the same standard for all test takers and can be compared across all GMAT test administrations.

It is appropriate for GMAT scores to be used as an admissions tool for graduate study in management or as a basis for selecting applicants for financial aid based on academic potential. GMAT scores should not be used as a requirement for awarding a job; as a requirement for employment, job licensing or certification, or job-related rewards such as raises or promotions; or as an achievement test.

How do I send my scores to schools?

Approximately 20 days after your test date, your Official Score Report, including the digital photograph you provided at the test center and copies of your essays, are made available to any graduate management program you designated when you took the GMAT exam. Not all graduate management programs elect to receive photographs and essays. Once scores are made available, a school you designate can access your scores at any time. If you have not yet designated schools to receive your scores, or if you want to designate additional schools, visit www.mba.com or call GMAT Customer Service. We will report results from all tests you took in the last five years.

Who has access to my scores?

Score reports, which include copies of essays and a digital photograph if a designated graduate management program has elected to receive them, are released only at your specific request--either when you take the test, or when you request an Additional Score Report (ASR)--unless required by law, to cooperate in judicial or governmental proceedings, as necessary to detect or prevent unlawful activity, or as otherwise provided in the Privacy Policy on www.mba.com/privacy and in the GMAT Handbook.

Should I decide where to apply based on my scores?

You may be doing yourself a disservice if you rely solely on your GMAT scores to decide where to apply, or even whether to apply at all. Schools treat GMAT scores as only one of several predictors of performance. Most schools publish average and mid-80% range scores for the students they admit. Averages can be skewed by unusually high scores. For that reason, you can generally get a better understanding of the types of GMAT scores a school typically admits by looking at the mid-80% range, which indicates the scores earned by 80% of students who were admitted.

How will retaking the GMAT exam affect my chances of admission?

Admissions committees treat multiple scores in a variety of ways. They may use only your highest scores, your most recent scores, or an average of your scores. You should contact schools directly to learn how they use multiple GMAT scores.

Can I now cancel my scores?

You can cancel your scores only at the test center immediately after you take the test. Once your scores have been reported, they become part of your permanent score record and cannot be canceled.

(on behalf of NCB – GATE, for MHRD)

The GATE 2019 score is calculated using the formula

$$GATE\ Score = S_q + (S_t - S_q) \frac{(M - M_q)}{(\bar{M}_t - M_q)}$$

where,

M is the marks obtained by the candidate in the paper, mentioned on this GATE 2019 scorecard

M_q is the qualifying marks for general category candidate in the paper

\bar{M}_t is the mean of marks of top 0.1% or top 10 (whichever is larger) of the candidates who appeared in the paper (in case of multi-session papers including all sessions)

$S_q = 350$, is the score assigned to M_q

$S_t = 900$, is the score assigned to \bar{M}_t

In the GATE 2019 score formula, M_q is 25 marks (out of 100) or $\mu + \sigma$, whichever is greater. Here μ is the mean and σ is the standard deviation of marks of all the candidates who appeared in the paper.

Qualifying in GATE 2019 does not guarantee either an admission to a post-graduate program or a scholarship/assistantship. Admitting institutes may conduct further tests and interviews for final selection.

About Your GRE® Score Report

Score Reporting Policies

With the ScoreSelect® option, you can decide which test scores to send to the institutions you designate. There are three options to choose from:

- Most Recent option – Send your scores from your most recent test administration
- All option – Send your scores from all administrations in the last five years
- Any option – Send your scores from one OR as many test administrations in the last five years (this option is not available on test day when you select up to four FREE score reports)

Arshiya Aggarwal*Most Recent Test Date: October 14, 2019*Date of Birth: November 3, 1996

Registration Number: 6259036

Print Date: September 13, 2024

Scores for a test administration must be reported in their entirety. Institutions will receive score reports that show only the scores that you selected to send to them. There will be no special indication if you have taken additional GRE tests. See the GRE® Information Bulletin for details. The policies and procedures explained in the Bulletin for the current testing year supersede previous policies and procedures in previous bulletins.

If your scores are not available for any reason, you will see “Not Available” in Your Test Score History.

GRE test scores are reportable for five (5) years following your test date. For example, scores for a test taken on July 3, 2021, are reportable through July 2, 2026. Note: Score recipients will only receive scores from test administrations that you have selected to send to them.

Beginning in September 2023, the subscores on the Physics and Psychology Tests will be reported as percent correct scores (i.e., the percentage of questions in a subscore area answered correctly). Subscores earned after September 2023 should not be compared with scaled subscores earned prior to September 2023.

Percentile Rank (% Below)

A percentile rank for a test score indicates the percentage of test takers who took that test and received a lower score. Regardless of when the reported scores were earned, the percentile ranks for General Test and Subject Test scores are based on the scores of all test takers who tested within the most recent three-year period.

Free GRE Diagnostic Service

For detailed information about your performance on the Verbal Reasoning and Quantitative Reasoning sections of the computer-delivered GRE General Test, access the free GRE Diagnostic Service from your ETS account. This service includes a description of the types of questions you answered right and wrong, the difficulty level of each question, and the time spent on each question. This service is available approximately 15 days after your test administration and for six months following your test administration.

Retaking a GRE Test

You can take the GRE General Test once every 21 days, up to five times within any continuous rolling 12-month period (365 days). This applies even if you canceled your scores on a test taken previously. You can retake a GRE Subject Test once every 14 days.

Note: This policy will be enforced even if a violation is not immediately identified (e.g., inconsistent registration information) and test scores have been reported. In such cases, the invalid scores will be canceled and score recipients will be notified of the cancellation. Test fees will be forfeited.

Qualifying in GATE 2020 does not guarantee either an admission to a post-graduate programme or a scholarship/assistantship. Admitting institutes may conduct further tests or interviews for final selection.

In the GATE 2020, the qualifying marks for a general category candidate in each paper is $\mu + \sigma$ or 25 marks (out of 100), whichever is greater, where μ is the mean and σ is the standard deviation of marks of all the candidates who appeared in the paper. The qualifying marks for OBC(NCL) and SC/ST/PwD candidates are 90% and two-third of a general category candidate in the paper respectively.

The GATE 2020 score was calculated using the formula

$$GATE\ Score = S_q + (S_t - S_q) \frac{(M - M_q)}{(\bar{M}_t - M_q)}$$

where

M is marks (out of 100) obtained by the candidate in the paper

M_q is the qualifying marks for general category candidate in the paper

\bar{M}_t is the mean of marks of top 0.1% or top 10 (whichever is greater) of the candidates who appeared in the paper (in case of multi-session papers including all sessions)

S_q = 350, is the score assigned to M_q

S_t = 900, is the score assigned to \bar{M}_t

In multi-session (Civil Engineering and Mechanical Engineering) papers, the normalized mark of j^{th} candidate in the i^{th} session \hat{M}_{ij} was computed using the formula

$$\hat{M}_{ij} = \frac{\bar{M}_t^g - M_q^g}{\bar{M}_{ti} - M_{iq}} (M_{ij} - M_{iq}) + M_q^g$$

where

M_{ij} is the actual marks obtained by the j^{th} candidate in i^{th} session

\bar{M}_t^g is the average marks of the top 0.1% of the candidates considering all sessions

M_q^g is the sum of mean and standard deviation marks of the candidates in the paper considering all sessions

\bar{M}_{ti} is the average marks of the top 0.1% of the candidates in the i^{th} session

M_{iq} is the sum of the mean marks and standard deviation of the i^{th} session

Organising Institute: Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur

General Information

The GATE 2022 score is calculated using the formula

$$\text{GATE Score} = S_q + (S_t - S_q) \frac{(M - M_q)}{(M_t - M_q)}$$

where,

M is the marks obtained by the candidate in the paper, mentioned on this GATE 2022 scorecard

M_q is the qualifying marks for general category candidate in the paper

M_t is the mean of marks of top 0.1% or top 10 (whichever is larger) of the candidates who appeared in the paper (in case of multi-session papers including all sessions)

S_q = 350, is the score assigned to M_q

S_t = 900, is the score assigned to M_t

In the GATE 2022 score formula, M_q is 25 marks (out of 100) or $\mu + \sigma$, whichever is greater. Here μ is the mean and σ is the standard deviation of marks of all the candidates who appeared in the paper.

Qualifying in GATE 2022 does not guarantee either an admission to a post-graduate program or a scholarship/assistantship. Admitting institutes may conduct further tests and interviews for final selection.

Graduate Aptitude Test in Engineering (GATE) 2022 was organized by Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur on behalf of the National Coordination Board (NCB) – GATE for the Department of Higher Education, Ministry of Education (MoE), Government of India.

Qualifying in GATE 2020 does not guarantee either an admission to a post-graduate programme or a scholarship/assistantship. Admitting institutes may conduct further tests or interviews for final selection.

In the GATE 2020, the qualifying marks for a general category candidate in each paper is $\mu + \sigma$ or 25 marks (out of 100), whichever is greater, where μ is the mean and σ is the standard deviation of marks of all the candidates who appeared in the paper. The qualifying marks for OBC(NCL) and SC/ST/PwD candidates are 90% and two-third of a general category candidate in the paper respectively.

The GATE 2020 score was calculated using the formula

$$GATE\ Score = S_q + (S_t - S_q) \frac{(M - M_q)}{(\bar{M}_t - M_q)}$$

where

M is marks (out of 100) obtained by the candidate in the paper

M_q is the qualifying marks for general category candidate in the paper

\bar{M}_t is the mean of marks of top 0.1% or top 10 (whichever is greater) of the candidates who appeared in the paper (in case of multi-session papers including all sessions)

$S_q = 350$, is the score assigned to M_q

$S_t = 900$, is the score assigned to \bar{M}_t

In multi-session (Civil Engineering and Mechanical Engineering) papers, the normalized mark of j^{th} candidate in the i^{th} session \hat{M}_{ij} was computed using the formula

$$\hat{M}_{ij} = \frac{\bar{M}_t^g - M_q^g}{\bar{M}_{ti} - M_{iq}} (M_{ij} - M_{iq}) + M_q^g$$

where

M_{ij} is the actual marks obtained by the j^{th} candidate in i^{th} session

\bar{M}_t^g is the average marks of the top 0.1% of the candidates considering all sessions

M_q^g is the sum of mean and standard deviation marks of the candidates in the paper considering all sessions

\bar{M}_{ti} is the average marks of the top 0.1% of the candidates in the i^{th} session

M_{iq} is the sum of the mean marks and standard deviation of the i^{th} session

Graduate Aptitude Test in Engineering (GATE) 2020 was organised by Indian Institute of Technology Delhi on behalf of the National Coordination Board (NCB) – GATE for the Department of Higher Education, Ministry of Human Resources Development (MHRD), Government of India.

Date of Birth: September 10, 1996

Registration Number: 8445967

Print Date: December 8, 2020

Scores for a test administration must be reported in their entirety. Institutions will receive score reports that show only the scores that you selected to send to them. There will be no special indication if you have taken additional GRE tests. See the GRE® Information Bulletin for details. The policies and procedures explained in the Bulletin for the current testing year supersede previous policies and procedures in previous bulletins.

Scores will be sent to designated score recipients approximately 10-15 days after a computer-delivered test and 5 weeks after a paper-delivered test. If your scores are not available for any reason, you will see "Not Available" in Your Test Score History.

GRE test scores are reportable according to the following policies:

- For tests taken prior to July 1, 2016, scores are reportable for five (5) years following the testing year in which you tested (July 1 – June 30). For example, scores for a test taken on May 15, 2015, are reportable through June 30, 2020. GRE scores earned prior to August 2011 are no longer reportable.
- For tests taken on or after July 1, 2016, scores are reportable for five (5) years following your test date. For example, scores for a test taken on July 3, 2016, are reportable through July 2, 2021.

Note: Score recipients will only receive scores from test administrations that you have selected to send to them.

Percentile Rank (% Below)

A percentile rank for a test score indicates the percentage of test takers who took that test and received a lower score. Regardless of when the reported scores were earned, the percentile ranks for General Test and Subject Test scores are based on the scores of all test takers who tested within the most recent three-year period.

Retaking a GRE Test

You can take the GRE® General Test once every 21 days, up to five times within any continuous rolling 12-month period (365 days). This applies even if you canceled your scores on a test taken previously. You can take the paper-delivered GRE General Test and GRE® Subject Tests as often as they are offered.

Note: This policy will be enforced even if a violation is not immediately identified (e.g., inconsistent registration information) and test scores have been reported. In such cases, the invalid scores will be canceled and score recipients will be notified of the cancellation. Test fees will be forfeited.

For More Information

For information about interpreting your scores, see Interpreting Your GRE Scores at www.ets.org/gre/understand.

You must also provide evidence of support for tuition and fees and living expenses while you are in the United States.

ADMISSION. When you enter the United States, you must present the following documents to the officer at the port of entry: 1) a Form I-20; 2) a valid F-1 visa (unless you are exempt from visa requirements); 3) a valid passport; and 4) evidence of support for tuition and fees and living expenses while you are in the United States. The agent should return all documents to you before you leave the inspection area.

REPORT TO SCHOOL NAMED ON YOUR FORM I-20 AND VISA. Upon your first entry to the United States, you must report to the DSO at the school named on your Form I-20 and your F-1 visa (unless you are exempt from visa requirements). If you decide to attend another school before you enter the United States, you must present a Form I-20 from the new school to a U.S. consular officer for a new F-1 visa that names the new school. Failure to enroll in the school, by the program start date on your Form I-20 may result in the loss of your student status and subject you to deportation.

EMPLOYMENT. Unlawful employment in the United States is a reason for terminating your F-1 status and deporting you from the United States. You may be employed on campus at your school. You may be employed off-campus in curricular practical training (CPT) if you have written permission from your DSO. You may apply to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for off-campus employment authorization in three circumstances: 1) employment with an international organization; 2) severe and unexpected economic hardship; and 3) optional practical training (OPT) related to your degree. You must have written authorization from USCIS before you begin work. Contact your DSO for details. Your spouse or child (F-2 classification) may not work in the United States.

PERIOD OF STAY. You may remain in the United States while taking a full course of study or during authorized employment after your program. F-1 status ends and you are required to leave the United States on the earliest of the following dates: 1) the program end date on your Form I-20 plus 60 days; 2) the end date of your OPT plus 60 days; or 3) the termination of your program for any other reason. Contact your DSO for details.

EXTENSION OF PROGRAM. If you cannot complete the education program by the program end date on page 1 of your Form I-20, you should contact your DSO at least 15 days before the program end date to request an extension.

SCHOOL TRANSFER. To transfer schools, first notify the DSO at the school you are attending of your plan to transfer, then obtain a Form I-20 from the DSO at the school you plan to attend. Return the Form I-20 for the new school to the DSO at that school within 15 days after beginning attendance at the new school. The DSO will then report the transfer to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). You must enroll in the new school at the next session start date. The DSO at the new school must update your registration in SEVIS.

NOTICE OF ADDRESS. When you arrive in the United States, you must report your U.S. address to your DSO. If you move, you must notify your DSO of your new address within 10 days of the change of address. The DSO will update SEVIS with your new address.

REENTRY. F-1 students may leave the United States and return within a period of five months. To return, you must have: 1) a valid passport; 2) a valid F-1 student visa (unless you are exempt from visa requirements); and 3) your Form I-20, page 2, properly endorsed for reentry by your DSO. If you have been out of the United States for more than five months, contact your DSO.

AUTHORIZATION TO RELEASE INFORMATION BY SCHOOL. DHS requires your school to provide DHS with your name, country of birth, current address, immigration status, and certain other information on a regular basis or upon request. Your signature on the Form I-20 authorizes the named school to release such information from your records.

PENALTY. To maintain your nonimmigrant student status, you must: 1) remain a full-time student at your authorized school; 2) engage only in authorized employment; and 3) keep your passport valid. Failure to comply with these regulations will result in the loss of your student status and subject you to deportation.

INSTRUCTIONS TO SCHOOLS

Failure to comply with 8 CFR 214.3(k) and 8 CFR 214.4 when issuing Forms I-20 will subject you and your school to criminal prosecution. If you issue this form improperly, provide false information, or fail to submit required reports, DHS may withdraw its certification of your school for attendance by nonimmigrant students.

ISSUANCE OF FORM I-20. DSOs may issue a Form I-20 for any nonimmigrant your school has accepted for a full course of study if that person: 1) plans to apply to enter the United States in F-1 status; 2) is in the United States as an F-1 nonimmigrant and plans to transfer to your school; or 3) is in the United States and will apply to change nonimmigrant status to F-1. DSOs may also issue the Form I-20 to the spouse or child (under the age of 21) of an F-1 student to use to enter or remain in the United States as an F-2 dependent. DSOs must sign where indicated at the bottom of page 1 of the Form I-20 to attest that the form is completed and issued in accordance with regulations.

ENDORSEMENT OF PAGE 2 FOR REENTRY. If there have been no substantive changes in information, DSOs may endorse page 2 of the Form I-20 for the student and/or the F-2 dependents to reenter the United States. If there have been substantive changes, the DSO should issue and sign a new Form I-20 that includes those changes.

RECORDKEEPING. DHS may request information concerning the student's immigration status for various reasons. DSOs should retain all evidence of academic ability and financial resources on which admission was based, until SEVIS shows the student's record completed or terminated.

AUTHORITY FOR COLLECTING INFORMATION. Authority for collecting the information on this and related student forms is contained in 8 U.S.C. 1101 and 1184. The Department of State and DHS use this information to determine eligibility for the benefits requested. The law provides severe penalties for knowingly and willfully falsifying or concealing a material fact, or using any false document in the submission of this form.

REPORTING BURDEN. U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement collects this information as part of its agency mission under the Department of Homeland Security. The estimated average time to review the instructions, search existing data sources, gather and maintain the needed data, and complete and review the collection of information is 30 minutes (.50 hours) per response. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to an information collection unless a form displays a currently valid OMB Control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: Office of the Chief Information Officer/Forms Management Branch, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, 801 I Street NW Stop 5800, Washington, DC 20536-5800. Do not send the form to this address.

SEMESTERS, SESSIONS, AND TERMS: An academic year consists of consecutive fall and spring semesters and the following summer session. A semester normally is about sixteen weeks long. The summer session comprises a first term (f) and a second term (s) each six weeks in duration; work also is offered on a nine-week basis (n) and a whole-session or twelve-week basis (w). The same academic credit is given for a course whether it is taken in the long session or the summer session.

ACADEMIC CREDIT: The unit of measure for academic credit is the semester hour. Most courses meet three hours a week in the long-session semester and have a credit value of three semester hours. The same courses meet for seven and one-half hours a week in a six-week summer term and have a credit value of three semester hours. For students enrolled in graduate programs, GPA hours and hours-passed reflect only those graduate-level courses (excluding thesis, dissertation, report, and treatise) and certain in-residence upper-division undergraduate courses taken while the student was enrolled in the Graduate School. Upper-division undergraduate courses taken in the fall of 1999 through the summer session of 2008 are not included.

COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM: Courses are designated by a three-digit number or a three-digit number with a capital letter affixed. The first digit in the course number indicates the value of the course: 001-099 indicates zero credit value; 101-199 indicates one semester hour credit; 201-299 indicates two semester hours credit; 301-399 indicates three semester hours credit; and so on. The last two digits indicate the rank of the course: 01-19 indicates lower-division rank; 20-79 indicates upper-division rank; and 80-99 indicates graduate rank.

All courses in the School of Law and some courses in the College of Pharmacy are considered professional rank.

Two courses with the same abbreviation and the same last two digits may not both be counted for credit by a student unless the two digits are followed by a capital letter. Some courses may be repeated for credit. Those courses are indicated in the University's catalogs.

PREFIXES AND SUFFIXES: The suffix letters A, B, and X, Y, Z indicate that a part of the course was given. A suffix of A or B divides the course into two parts; X, Y, or Z divides the course into three parts. In each case, the semester-hour credit given for the course is reduced accordingly.

The prefix letters f, s, n, and w indicate the terms of the summer session (see above) in which the course was offered: f indicates first term; s indicates second term; n indicates nine-week session; and w indicates whole session.

For grading systems used prior to 1979, contact the Office of the Registrar.

Through the summer session of 2009, plus and minus grades are reserved for graduate, graduate business, and law students enrolled in graduate-level, non-law courses. Beginning fall of 2009, plus and minus grades are valid for all students.

A course dropped by the twelfth class day of a long-session semester (fourth class day of a summer session term) is not entered on the permanent academic record.

Prior to fall 1981, NC grades did not appear on the transcript.

If you agree to these terms and conditions of conducting DocuSign electronic transactions with The University of Texas at Austin (we, us, or company), confirm your agreement by checking the box “I agree to use electronic records and signatures” on the DocuSign signing interface. Contact rms@austin.utexas.edu if you cannot access the full Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure document to your satisfaction.

You have the right to decline to conduct this transaction electronically. If you elect to decline to conduct this transaction electronically, contact the sender of the document by replying to the email you received from dse@docusign.net and work with the sender to complete and sign your documents outside of DocuSign. Refer to the section “Withdrawing Your Consent” below for further information about declining to conduct this transaction electronically.

Unless you tell us otherwise in accordance with the procedures described herein, once you have agreed to use electronic records and signatures, we will provide required notifications and disclosures via secure link sent to the email you have provided us.

Copies of documents signed via DocuSign

You can view, download an electronic copy, or print a paper copy of any completed document that you have DocuSigned to transact business with The University of Texas at Austin by using the document link in your DocuSign notification.

The option to directly obtain copies of your completed DocuSign document from the link in the notification email is available for at least 14 days after the notification of completion date. If you need a copy of your DocuSigned document and you can no longer directly access it, you must contact the sender or university department listed as the sender from your DocuSign notification email. The GATE 2021 score is calculated using the formula

where,

M is the marks obtained by the candidate in the paper, mentioned on this GATE 2021 scorecard

M_q is the qualifying marks for general category candidate in the paper

\bar{M}_t is the mean of marks of top 0.1% or top 10 (whichever is larger) of the candidates who appeared in the paper (in case of multi-session papers including all sessions)

$S_q = 350$, is the score assigned to M_q

$S_t = 900$, is the score assigned to \bar{M}_t

In the GATE 2021 score formula, M_q is 25 marks (out of 100) or $\mu + \sigma$, whichever is greater. Here μ is the mean and σ is the standard deviation of marks of all the candidates who appeared in the paper.

Qualifying in GATE 2021 does not guarantee either an admission to a post-graduate program or a scholarship/assistantship. Admitting institutes may conduct further tests and interviews for final selection.

About Your GRE® Score Report
Score Reporting Policies

With the ScoreSelect® option, you can decide which test scores to send to the institutions you designate. There are three options to choose from:

- Most Recent option – Send your scores from your most recent test administration
- All option – Send your scores from all administrations in the last five years
- Any option – Send your scores from one OR as many test administrations in the last five years (this option is not available on test day when you select up to four FREE score reports)

Scores for a test administration must be reported in their entirety. Institutions will receive score reports that show only the scores that you selected to send to them. There will be no special indication if you have taken additional GRE tests. See the GRE® Information Bulletin for details. The policies and procedures explained in the Bulletin for the current testing year supersede previous policies and procedures in previous bulletins.

Scores will be sent to designated score recipients approximately 10-15 days after a computer-delivered test and 5 weeks after a paper-delivered test. If your scores are not available for any reason, you will see “Not Available” in Your Test Score History.

GRE test scores are reportable according to the following policies:

- For tests taken prior to July 1, 2016, scores are reportable for five (5) years following the testing year in which you tested (July 1 – June 30). For example, scores for a test taken on May 15, 2015, are reportable through June 30, 2020. GRE scores earned prior to August 2011 are no longer reportable.
- For tests taken on or after July 1, 2016, scores are reportable for five (5) years following your test date. For example, scores for a test taken on July 3, 2016, are reportable through July 2, 2021.

Note: Score recipients will only receive scores from test administrations that you have selected to send to them.

Percentile Rank (% Below)

A percentile rank for a test score indicates the percentage of test takers who took that test and received a lower score. Regardless of when the reported scores were earned, the percentile ranks for General Test and Subject Test scores are based on the scores of all test takers who tested within the most recent three-year period.

Retaking a GRE Test

You can take the GRE® General Test once every 21 days, up to five times within any continuous rolling 12-month period (365 days). This applies even if you canceled your scores on a test taken previously. You can take the paper-delivered GRE General Test and GRE® Subject Tests as often as they are offered.

Note: This policy will be enforced even if a violation is not immediately identified (e.g., inconsistent registration information) and test scores have been reported. In such cases, the invalid scores will be canceled and score recipients will be notified of the cancellation. Test fees will be forfeited.

For information about interpreting your scores, see Interpreting Your GRE Scores at www.ets.org/gre/understand.

The GATE 2021 score is calculated using the formula

$$GATE\ Score = S_q + (S_t - S_q) \frac{(M - M_q)}{(\bar{M}_t - M_q)}$$

where,

M is the marks obtained by the candidate in the paper, mentioned on this GATE 2021 scorecard

M_q is the qualifying marks for general category candidate in the paper

\bar{M}_t is the mean of marks of top 0.1% or top 10 (whichever is larger) of the candidates who appeared in the paper (in case of multi-session papers including all sessions)

$S_q = 350$, is the score assigned to M_q

$S_t = 900$, is the score assigned to \bar{M}_t

In the GATE 2021 score formula, M_q is 25 marks (out of 100) or $\mu + \sigma$, whichever is greater. Here μ is the mean and σ is the standard deviation of marks of all the candidates who appeared in the paper.

Qualifying in GATE 2021 does not guarantee either an admission to a post-graduate program or a scholarship/assistantship. Admitting institutes may conduct further tests and interviews for final selection.

General Information

The GATE 2022 score is calculated using the formula

$$\text{GATE Score} = S_q + (S_t - S_q) \frac{(M - M_q)}{(M_t - M_q)}$$

where,

M is the marks obtained by the candidate in the paper, mentioned on this GATE 2022 scorecard

M_q is the qualifying marks for general category candidate in the paper

M_t is the mean of marks of top 0.1% or top 10 (whichever is larger) of the candidates who appeared in the paper (in case of multi-session papers including all sessions)

$S_q = 350$, is the score assigned to M_q

$S_t = 900$, is the score assigned to M_t

In the GATE 2022 score formula, M_q is 25 marks (out of 100) or $\mu + \sigma$, whichever is greater. Here μ is the mean and σ is the standard deviation of marks of all the candidates who appeared in the paper.

Qualifying in GATE 2022 does not guarantee either an admission to a post-graduate program or a scholarship/assistantship. Admitting institutes may conduct further tests and interviews for final selection.

General Information

The GATE 2022 score is calculated using the formula

$$\text{GATE Score} = S_q + (S_t - S_q) \frac{(M - M_q)}{(M_t - M_q)}$$

where,

M is the marks obtained by the candidate in the paper, mentioned on this GATE 2022 scorecard

M_q is the qualifying marks for general category candidate in the paper

M_t is the mean of marks of top 0.1% or top 10 (whichever is larger) of the candidates who appeared in the paper (in case of multi-session papers including all sessions)

$S_q = 350$, is the score assigned to M_q

$S_t = 900$, is the score assigned to M_t

In the GATE 2022 score formula, M_q is 25 marks (out of 100) or $\mu + \sigma$, whichever is greater. Here μ is the mean and σ is the standard deviation of marks of all the candidates who appeared in the paper.

Qualifying in GATE 2022 does not guarantee either an admission to a post-graduate program or a scholarship/assistantship. Admitting institutes may conduct further tests and interviews for final selection.

Graduate Aptitude Test in Engineering (GATE) 2022 was organized by Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur on behalf of the National Coordination Board (NCB) – GATE for the Department of Higher Education, Ministry of Education (MoE), Government of India.

Answers to Frequently Asked Questions

What does the GMAT exam measure?

The GMAT exam measures basic verbal, mathematical, analytical writing, and integrated reasoning skills that you have developed over a long period of time in your education and work. The Integrated Reasoning section requires candidates to interpret and analyze information from different sources and in a variety of formats to solve complex reasoning tasks. The Verbal section measures your ability to understand and evaluate what you read, as well as your ability to recognize basic conventions of standard written English. The Quantitative section tests quantitative reasoning ability. The Analytical Writing Assessment section measures your ability to think critically and communicate complex ideas in writing. Your GMAT scores should not be compared with other test scores. Although the GMAT score scales may resemble those used for other tests, the scores are not directly related.

What doesn't the GMAT exam measure?

It does not measure your knowledge of business, your job skills, or subjective qualities such as motivation, creativity, and interpersonal skills. If a test taker's first language is not English, he or she may still perform well on the exam; however, the GMAT exam may not accurately reflect the abilities of someone who is not proficient in English.

How are the Analytical Writing Assessment scores used?

The Analytical Writing Assessment is used to provide an independent ranking of your ability to think critically and to communicate clearly when writing in English. Writing scores are computed separately from the scores for the multiple-choice sections of the test and have no effect on the Verbal, Quantitative, or Total scores.

What do GMAT scores predict?

GMAT scores are a valid predictor of academic performance in the first year of a graduate management program. Since creating the GMAT exam 50 years ago, we have conducted hundreds of validity studies that demonstrate this fact. In the past ten years, we've conducted almost 300 studies for graduate management programs all over the world. The median correlation between GMAT scores and first-year grades was 0.51 (perfect correlation is 1.0). The median correlation between undergraduate grade point average and first-year grades was 0.28. Thus, GMAT scores are generally a better predictor of performance in the first year of business school than undergraduate grades, though we advise admissions committees to use both when evaluating candidates.

How reliable are GMAT scores?

Test scores actually earned on any given occasion are only an approximation of your true ability. However, our research indicates that you will most likely earn a Total score within about 30 points of a score reflecting your true ability. Your Verbal and Quantitative scores are probably within 2.9 points of your true scores. If you take the GMAT exam more than once, you probably will not receive exactly the same scores. "Reliability" indicates the degree to which you would keep the same score if you were to take the test more than once (perfect reliability is 1.00). The average reliability of the GMAT Total score is 0.93. Average reliability is 0.87 for the Verbal score and 0.90 for the Quantitative score. Therefore, the reliability of GMAT scores is very high.

How long are my GMAT scores valid?

Scores are usually reported up to five years from the date you took the exam. With a special request and for an additional fee, you may report scores up to 10 years from the date you took the exam. However, scores more than five years old will be accompanied by a statement indicating that they must be interpreted with care; many institutions will not accept scores over five years old. On behalf of GMAC, Pearson VUE destroys all score records more than 10 years old.

How should my scores be used?

Admissions committees typically use GMAT scores in conjunction with your academic record(s) and other information obtained from application materials. Unlike academic grades--which vary in meaning according to the grading standards of each school--GMAT scores are based on the same standard for all test takers and can be compared across all GMAT test administrations.

It is appropriate for GMAT scores to be used as an admissions tool for graduate study in management or as a basis for selecting applicants for financial aid based on academic potential. GMAT scores should not be used as a requirement for awarding a job; as a requirement for employment, job licensing or certification, or job-related rewards such as raises or promotions; or as an achievement test.

How do I send my scores to schools?

Approximately 20 days after your test date, your Official Score Report, including the digital photograph you provided at the test center and copies of your essays, are made available to any graduate management program you designated when you took the GMAT exam. Not all graduate management programs elect to receive photographs and essays. Once scores are made available, a school you designate can access your scores at any time. If you have not yet designated schools to receive your scores, or if you want to designate additional schools, visit www.mba.com or call GMAT Customer Service. We will report results from all tests you took in the last five years.

Who has access to my scores?

Score reports, which include copies of essays and a digital photograph if a designated graduate management program has elected to receive them, are released only at your specific request--either when you take the test, or when you request an Additional Score Report (ASR)--unless required by law, to cooperate in judicial or governmental proceedings, as necessary to detect or prevent unlawful activity, or as otherwise provided in the Privacy Policy on www.mba.com/privacy and in the GMAT Handbook.

Should I decide where to apply based on my scores?

You may be doing yourself a disservice if you rely solely on your GMAT scores to decide where to apply, or even whether to apply at all. Schools treat GMAT scores as only one of several predictors of performance. Most schools publish average and mid-80% range scores for the students they admit. Averages can be skewed by unusually high scores. For that reason, you can generally get a better understanding of the types of GMAT scores a school typically admits by looking at the mid-80% range, which indicates the scores earned by 80% of students who were admitted.

How will retaking the GMAT exam affect my chances of admission?

Admissions committees treat multiple scores in a variety of ways. They may use only your highest scores, your most recent scores, or an average of your scores. You should contact schools directly to learn how they use multiple GMAT scores.

Can I now cancel my scores?

You can cancel your scores only at the test center immediately after you take the test. Once your scores have been reported, they become part of your permanent score record and cannot be canceled.

About Your GRE® Score Report

Score Reporting Policies

With the ScoreSelect® option, you can decide which test scores to send to the institutions you designate. There are three options to choose from:

- Most Recent option – Send your scores from your most recent test administration
- All option – Send your scores from all administrations in the last five years
- Any option – Send your scores from one OR as many test administrations in the last five years (this option is not available on test day when you select up to four FREE score reports)

Scores for a test administration must be reported in their entirety. Institutions will receive score reports that show only the scores that you selected to send to them. There will be no special indication if you have taken additional GRE tests. See the GRE® Information Bulletin for details. The policies and procedures explained in the Bulletin for the current testing year supersede previous policies and procedures in previous bulletins.

Scores will be sent to designated score recipients approximately 10-15 days after a computer-delivered test and 5 weeks after a paper-delivered test. If your scores are not available for any reason, you will see “Not Available” in Your Test Score History.

GRE test scores are reportable according to the following policies:

- For tests taken prior to July 1, 2016, scores are reportable for five (5) years following the testing year in which you tested (July 1 – June 30). For example, scores for a test taken on May 15, 2015, are reportable through June 30, 2020. GRE scores earned prior to August 2011 are no longer reportable.

Percentile Rank (% Below)

A percentile rank for a test score indicates the percentage of test takers who took that test and received a lower score. Regardless of when the reported scores were earned, the percentile ranks for General Test and Subject Test scores are based on the scores of all test takers who tested within the most recent three-year period.

Retaking a GRE Test

You can take the GRE® General Test once every 21 days, up to five times within any continuous rolling 12-month period (365 days). This applies even if you canceled your scores on a test taken previously. You can take the paper-delivered GRE General Test and GRE® Subject Tests as often as they are offered.

Note: This policy will be enforced even if a violation is not immediately identified (e.g., inconsistent registration information) and test scores have been reported. In such cases, the invalid scores will be canceled and score recipients will be notified of the cancellation. Test fees will be forfeited.

For More Information

For information about interpreting your scores, see Interpreting Your GRE Scores at www.ets.org/gre/test-takers/general-test/scores/understand-scores.

For detailed information about your performance on the Verbal Reasoning and Quantitative Reasoning sections of the computer-delivered GRE General Test, access the free GRE Diagnostic Service from your ETS account. This service includes a description of the types of questions you answered right and wrong, the difficulty level of each question, and the time spent on each question. This service is available approximately 15 days after your test administration and for six months following your test administration.

General Information

The GATE 2022 score is calculated using the formula

$$\text{GATE Score} = S_q + (S_t - S_q) \frac{(M - M_q)}{(M_t - M_q)}$$

where,

M is the marks obtained by the candidate in the paper, mentioned on this GATE 2022 scorecard

M_q is the qualifying marks for general category candidate in the paper

M_t is the mean of marks of top 0.1% or top 10 (whichever is larger) of the candidates who appeared in the paper (in case of multi-session papers including all sessions)

$S_q = 350$, is the score assigned to M_q

$S_t = 900$, is the score assigned to M_t

In the GATE 2022 score formula, M_q is 25 marks (out of 100) or $\mu + \sigma$, whichever is greater. Here μ is the mean and σ is the standard deviation of marks of all the candidates who appeared in the paper.

Qualifying in GATE 2022 does not guarantee either an admission to a post-graduate program or a scholarship/assistantship. Admitting institutes may conduct further tests and interviews for final selection.

Graduate Aptitude Test in Engineering (GATE) 2022 was organized by Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur on behalf of the National Coordination Board (NCB) – GATE for the Department of Higher Education, Ministry of Education (MoE), Government of India.

Notes:

1. The term or symbol "Dollars/$" refers to Australian Dollars.
2. The accommodation and living expenses above are based on recent data for 12 months living in independent (i.e. open-market) shared accommodation in Sydney. All costs are approximate and should be used as a general guide only for a single student. Your actual costs will depend on things such as your lifestyle and ability to manage your funds. The cost of living is likely to rise from year to year, depending on the general economic circumstances at the time. In addition, some courses may require additional expenses such as uniforms, vaccinations, equipment hire, travel, field trips and specialist software. You will incur extra costs if you have dependants including but not limited to full fees for school aged dependants enrolled in either government or non-government schools.
3. You are required to purchase OSHC for yourself and any accompanying dependants for the entire time you are in Australia on a student visa. OSHC is payable upfront as a lump sum for the full length of your stay on a student visa. Medibank is the UTS preferred provider for OSHC but you may purchase OSHC from an authorised provider of your choice. The cost of cover may differ between insurers and the plan you choose. You are responsible for paying any additional charges required by your health insurer to ensure you have health cover while in Australia on a student visa. Please note that you will need to submit evidence of your OSHC arrangements when you lodge your visa application with the Department of Home Affairs. See <http://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/> for more information.
4. The quoted SSAF is based on the rate applicable for each Autumn and Spring Session in the year stated and is subject to annual increase. You will be liable to pay the SSAF applicable for each Autumn and Spring Session in which you enrol, however, you will only be charged the SSAF after the census date. UTS reserves the right to vary the method of charging the SSAF.
5. Tuition fees are charged on a per-credit-point basis. The above annual tuition fee assumes you will enrol in a standard 100% Credit Point load for your chosen course, which is normally 24 credit points per Session. Your actual course cost per Session may differ from this figure depending on the course and the number of credit points taken per Session. UTS reserves the right to change the number of Credit Points per Session that constitute a standard 100% Credit Point load.
6. Tuition Fees for core subjects within the course or major are quoted for 2024 and are subject to annual increase. . For more information regarding International student tuition fees, please visit <https://www.uts.edu.au/current-students/managing-your-course/fees-and-payment/international-student-tuition-fees>. You must factor in the likelihood of an annual tuition fee increase into your overall budgeting, as well as considering the impact of fluctuating exchange rates if you are using funds from an overseas country.
7. The Department of Home Affairs currently requires prospective student visa applicants to be able to demonstrate that they are able to access a minimum of $24505 a year towards living cost requirements while they are studying in Australia on a student visa.
8. Under 18 students who are under a UTS CAAW must reside in UTS approved accommodation. Visit <https://www.uts.edu.au/study/international/essential-information/study-heart-sydney/welfare-arrangements-students-under-18> for more information. U18 Accommodation fees are subject to annual increase.

Answers to Frequently Asked Questions

What does the GMAT exam measure?

The GMAT exam measures basic verbal, mathematical, analytical writing, and integrated reasoning skills that you have developed over a long period of time in your education and work. The Integrated Reasoning section requires candidates to interpret and analyze information from different sources and in a variety of formats to solve complex reasoning tasks. The Verbal section measures your ability to understand and evaluate what you read, as well as your ability to recognize basic conventions of standard written English. The Quantitative section tests quantitative reasoning ability. The Analytical Writing Assessment section measures your ability to think critically and communicate complex ideas in writing. Your GMAT scores should not be compared with other test scores. Although the GMAT score scales may resemble those used for other tests, the scores are not directly related.

What doesn't the GMAT exam measure?

It does not measure your knowledge of business, your job skills, or subjective qualities such as motivation, creativity, and interpersonal skills. If a test taker's first language is not English, he or she may still perform well on the exam; however, the GMAT exam may not accurately reflect the abilities of someone who is not proficient in English.

How are the Analytical Writing Assessment scores used?

The Analytical Writing Assessment is used to provide an independent ranking of your ability to think critically and to communicate clearly when writing in English. Writing scores are computed separately from the scores for the multiple-choice sections of the test and have no effect on the Verbal, Quantitative, or Total scores.

What do GMAT scores predict?

GMAT scores are a valid predictor of academic performance in the first year of a graduate management program. Since creating the GMAT exam 50 years ago, we have conducted hundreds of validity studies that demonstrate this fact. In the past ten years, we've conducted almost 300 studies for graduate management programs all over the world. The median correlation between GMAT scores and first-year grades was 0.51 (perfect correlation is 1.0). The median correlation between undergraduate grade point average and first-year grades was 0.28. Thus, GMAT scores are generally a better predictor of performance in the first year of business school than undergraduate grades, though we advise admissions committees to use both when evaluating candidates.

How reliable are GMAT scores?

Test scores actually earned on any given occasion are only an approximation of your true ability. However, our research indicates that you will most likely earn a Total score within about 30 points of a score reflecting your true ability. Your Verbal and Quantitative scores are probably within 2.9 points of your true scores. If you take the GMAT exam more than once, you probably will not receive exactly the same scores. "Reliability" indicates the degree to which you would keep the same score if you were to take the test more than once (perfect reliability is 1.00). The average reliability of the GMAT Total score is 0.93. Average reliability is 0.87 for the Verbal score and 0.90 for the Quantitative score. Therefore, the reliability of GMAT scores is very high.

How long are my GMAT scores valid?

Scores are usually reported up to five years from the date you took the exam. With a special request and for an additional fee, you may report scores up to 10 years from the date you took the exam. However, scores more than five years old will be accompanied by a statement indicating that they must be interpreted with care; many institutions will not accept scores over five years old. On behalf of GMAC, Pearson VUE destroys all score records more than 10 years old.

How should my scores be used?

Admissions committees typically use GMAT scores in conjunction with your academic record(s) and other information obtained from application materials. Unlike academic grades--which vary in meaning according to the grading standards of each school--GMAT scores are based on the same standard for all test takers and can be compared across all GMAT test administrations.

It is appropriate for GMAT scores to be used as an admissions tool for graduate study in management or as a basis for selecting applicants for financial aid based on academic potential. GMAT scores should not be used as a requirement for awarding a job; as a requirement for employment, job licensing or certification, or job-related rewards such as raises or promotions; or as an achievement test.

How do I send my scores to schools?

Approximately 20 days after your test date, your Official Score Report, including the digital photograph you provided at the test center and copies of your essays, are made available to any graduate management program you designated when you took the GMAT exam. Not all graduate management programs elect to receive photographs and essays. Once scores are made available, a school you designate can access your scores at any time. If you have not yet designated schools to receive your scores, or if you want to designate additional schools, visit www.mba.com or call GMAT Customer Service. We will report results from all tests you took in the last five years.

Who has access to my scores?

Score reports, which include copies of essays and a digital photograph if a designated graduate management program has elected to receive them, are released only at your specific request--either when you take the test, or when you request an Additional Score Report (ASR)--unless required by law, to cooperate in judicial or governmental proceedings, as necessary to detect or prevent unlawful activity, or as otherwise provided in the Privacy Policy on www.mba.com/privacy and in the GMAT Handbook.

Should I decide where to apply based on my scores?

You may be doing yourself a disservice if you rely solely on your GMAT scores to decide where to apply, or even whether to apply at all. Schools treat GMAT scores as only one of several predictors of performance. Most schools publish average and mid-80% range scores for the students they admit. Averages can be skewed by unusually high scores. For that reason, you can generally get a better understanding of the types of GMAT scores a school typically admits by looking at the mid-80% range, which indicates the scores earned by 80% of students who were admitted.

How will retaking the GMAT exam affect my chances of admission?

Admissions committees treat multiple scores in a variety of ways. They may use only your highest scores, your most recent scores, or an average of your scores. You should contact schools directly to learn how they use multiple GMAT scores.

Can I now cancel my scores?

You can cancel your scores only at the test center immediately after you take the test. Once your scores have been reported, they become part of your permanent score record and cannot be canceled.

About Your GRE® Score Report

Score Reporting Policies

With the ScoreSelect® option, you can decide which test scores to send to the institutions you designate. There are three options to choose from:

- Most Recent option – Send your scores from your most recent test administration
- All option – Send your scores from all administrations in the last five years
- Any option – Send your scores from one OR as many test administrations in the last five years (this option is not available on test day when you select up to four FREE score reports)

Scores for a test administration must be reported in their entirety. Institutions will receive score reports that show only the scores that you selected to send to them. There will be no special indication if you have taken additional GRE tests. See the GRE® Information Bulletin for details. The policies and procedures explained in the Bulletin for the current testing year supersede previous policies and procedures in previous bulletins.

Scores will be sent to designated score recipients approximately 10-15 days after a computer-delivered test and 5 weeks after a paper-delivered test. If your scores are not available for any reason, you will see “Not Available” in Your Test Score History.

GRE test scores are reportable according to the following policies:

- For tests taken prior to July 1, 2016, scores are reportable for five (5) years following the testing year in which you tested (July 1 – June 30). For example, scores for a test taken on May 15, 2015, are reportable through June 30, 2020. GRE scores earned prior to August 2011 are no longer reportable.
- For tests taken on or after July 1, 2016, scores are reportable for five (5) years following your test date. For example, scores for a test taken on July 3, 2016, are reportable through July 2, 2021.

Note: Score recipients will only receive scores from test administrations that you have selected to send to them.

Percentile Rank (% Below)

A percentile rank for a test score indicates the percentage of test takers who took that test and received a lower score. Regardless of when the reported scores were earned, the percentile ranks for General Test and Subject Test scores are based on the scores of all test takers who tested within the most recent three-year period.

Keshav NathMost Recent Test Date: May 24, 2023*Date of Birth: September 14, 2002

Registration Number: 2046272

Print Date: June 3, 2023

Retaking a GRE Test

You can take the GRE® General Test once every 21 days, up to five times within any continuous rolling 12-month period (365 days). This applies even if you canceled your scores on a test taken previously. You can take the paper-delivered GRE General Test and GRE® Subject Tests as often as they are offered.

Note: This policy will be enforced even if a violation is not immediately identified (e.g., inconsistent registration information) and test scores have been reported. In such cases, the invalid scores will be canceled and score recipients will be notified of the cancellation. Test fees will be forfeited.

For More Information

For information about interpreting your scores, see Interpreting Your GRE Scores at www.ets.org/gre/test-takers/general-test/scores/understand-scores.

For detailed information about your performance on the Verbal Reasoning and Quantitative Reasoning sections of the computer-delivered GRE General Test, access the free GRE Diagnostic Service from your ETS account. This service includes a description of the types of questions you answered right and wrong, the difficulty level of each question, and the time spent on each question. This service is available approximately 15 days after your test administration and for six months following your test administration.

If you have any questions concerning your score report, email GRE Services at gre-info@ets.org or call 1-609-771-7670 or 1-866-473-4373 (toll free for test takers in the U.S., U.S. Territories and Canada) between 8 a.m. and 7:45 p.m. (New York Time).

 A candidate is considered qualified if the marks secured are greater than or equal to the qualifying marks mentioned for the category for which valid category certificate, if applicable, is produced along with this score card.

General Information

The GATE 2023 score is calculated using the formula

$$\text{GATE Score} = S_q + (S_t - S_q) \frac{(M - M_q)}{(M_t - M_q)}$$

where,

M is the marks obtained by the candidate in the paper, mentioned on this GATE 2023 scorecard

M_a is the qualifying marks for general category candidate in the paper

M_i is the mean of marks of top 0.1% or top 10 (whichever is larger) of the candidates who appeared in the paper (in case of multi-session papers including all sessions)

$S_q = 350$, is the score assigned to M_q

$S_f = 900$, is the score assigned to M_f .

In the GATE 2023 score formula, M_q is 25 marks (out of 100) or $\mu + \sigma$, whichever is greater. Here μ is the mean and σ is the standard deviation of marks of all the candidates who appeared in the paper.

Qualifying in GATE 2023 does not guarantee either an admission to a post-graduate program or a scholarship/assistantship. Admitting institutes may conduct further tests and interviews for final selection.

Graduate Aptitude Test in Engineering (GATE) 2023 was organized by Indian Institute of Technology Kanpur on behalf of the National Coordination Board (NCB) – GATE for the Department of Higher Education, Ministry of Education (MoE), Government of India.

- All option – Send your scores from all administrations in the last five years
- Any option – Send your scores from one OR as many test administrations in the last five years (this option is not available on test day when you select up to four FREE score reports)

Scores for a test administration must be reported in their entirety. Institutions will receive score reports that show only the scores that you selected to send to them. There will be no special indication if you have taken additional GRE tests. See the GRE® Information Bulletin for details. The policies and procedures explained in the Bulletin for the current testing year supersede previous policies and procedures in previous bulletins.

Scores will be sent to designated score recipients approximately 10-15 days after a computer-delivered test and 5 weeks after a paper-delivered test. If your scores are not available for any reason, you will see “Not Available” in Your Test Score History.

GRE test scores are reportable according to the following policies:

- For tests taken prior to July 1, 2016, scores are reportable for five (5) years following the testing year in which you tested (July 1 – June 30). For example, scores for a test taken on May 15, 2015, are reportable through June 30, 2020. GRE scores earned prior to August 2011 are no longer reportable.
- For tests taken on or after July 1, 2016, scores are reportable for five (5) years following your test date. For example, scores for a test taken on July 3, 2016, are reportable through July 2, 2021.

Note: Score recipients will only receive scores from test administrations that you have selected to send to them.

Percentile Rank (% Below)

A percentile rank for a test score indicates the percentage of test takers who took that test and received a lower score. Regardless of when the reported scores were earned, the percentile ranks for General Test and Subject Test scores are based on the scores of all test takers who tested within the most recent three-year period.

Retaking a GRE Test

You can take the GRE® General Test once every 21 days, up to five times within any continuous rolling 12-month period (365 days). This applies even if you canceled your scores on a test taken previously. You can take the paper-delivered GRE General Test and GRE® Subject Tests as often as they are offered.

Note: This policy will be enforced even if a violation is not immediately identified (e.g., inconsistent registration information) and test scores have been reported. In such cases, the invalid scores will be canceled and score recipients will be notified of the cancellation. Test fees will be forfeited.

Our 3000+ alumni are leaders at global Fortune 500 companies in the Automotive, Manufacturing, Software, Technology, Consulting, Energy and Aerospace sectors, among others.

The U-M campus is an exciting place that spans downtown as well as the northeast part of Ann Arbor, which has been voted the best small city to live in with an overall A+ grade. MCity, located next to North Campus, is the world's first purpose-built proving ground for connected and automated vehicles under controlled and realistic conditions. Down the street, the North Campus Research Complex represents the largest physical expansion of U of M in nearly 60 years, including 1.3 million square feet of lab space devoted to research in energy, biomedical science, and nanotechnology. COMPUTATION OF NORMALISED MARKS

Computer Science and Information Technology (CS) and Civil Engineering (CE) were conducted in two sessions in GATE 2024. For such multisession papers, a suitable normalisation is applied to take into account any variation in the difficulty levels of the question papers across sessions. The normalisation is done based on the assumption that, in multisession GATE papers, the distribution of the abilities of the candidates is nearly the same across sessions. This assumption is reasonable because the number of candidates appearing for the test papers is large, the number of candidates allotted to the sessions are comparable, and the procedure for allocation of candidates to the sessions is random.

The normalised marks of the j^{th} candidate in the i^{th} session, denoted by \hat{M}_{ij} , are computed as

where

M_{ij} is the actual marks obtained by the j^{th} candidate in the i^{th} session

\bar{M}_t^g is the average marks of the top 0.1% of the candidates considering all sessions

M_q^g is the sum of mean and standard deviation of marks of the candidates in the paper considering all sessions

\bar{M}_{ti} is the average marks of the top 0.1% of the candidates in the i^{th} session and

M_{iq} is the sum of the mean and standard deviation of marks in the i^{th} session.

Qualifying in GATE 2024 does not guarantee admission to a postgraduate program or scholarship/financial assistance. Admitting institutes may conduct additional tests or interviews for final selection of candidates.

A candidate is considered qualified if the marks secured are greater than or equal to the qualifying marks mentioned for the category, for which a valid category certificate, if applicable, must be produced along with this Score Card.

This Score Card is valid
up to 31st March 2027.

GATE SCORE COMPUTATION

The GATE 2024 score is calculated using the formula

$$\text{GATE Score} = S_q + (S_t - S_q) \frac{(M - M_q)}{(M_t - M_q)}$$

where

M is the normalised marks obtained by the candidate in the paper mentioned on the GATE 2024 Score Card

M_q is the qualifying marks for general category candidates in the paper

M_t is the mean of marks of top 0.1% or top 10 (whichever is larger) of all the candidates who appeared for the test paper (i.e., including all sessions)

$S_q = 350$, is the score assigned to M_q

$S_t = 900$, is the score assigned to M_t

M_q is 25 marks (out of 100) or $\mu + \sigma$, whichever is greater. Here μ is the mean and σ is the standard deviation of marks of all the candidates who appeared for the test paper.

COMPUTATION OF NORMALISED MARKS

Computer Science and Information Technology (CS) and Civil Engineering (CE) were conducted in two sessions in GATE 2024. For such multisession papers, a suitable normalisation is applied to take into account any variation in the difficulty levels of the question papers across sessions. The normalisation is done based on the assumption that, in multisession GATE papers, the distribution of the abilities of the candidates is nearly the same across sessions. This assumption is reasonable because the number of candidates appearing for the test papers is large, the number of candidates allotted to the sessions are comparable, and the procedure for allocation of candidates to the sessions is random.

The normalised marks of the j^{th} candidate in the i^{th} session, denoted by \hat{M}_{ij} , are computed as

where

M_{ij} is the actual marks obtained by the j^{th} candidate in the i^{th} session

\bar{M}_t^g is the average marks of the top 0.1% of the candidates considering all sessions

M_q^g is the sum of mean and standard deviation of marks of the candidates in the paper considering all sessions

\bar{M}_{ti} is the average marks of the top 0.1% of the candidates in the i^{th} session and

M_{iq} is the sum of the mean and standard deviation of marks in the i^{th} session.

Qualifying in GATE 2024 does not guarantee admission to a postgraduate program or scholarship/financial assistance. Admitting institutes may conduct additional tests or interviews for final selection of candidates.

Computer Science and Information Technology (CS) and Civil Engineering (CE) were conducted in two sessions in GATE 2024. For such multisession papers, a suitable normalisation is applied to take into account any variation in the difficulty levels of the question papers across sessions. The normalisation is done based on the assumption that, in multisession GATE papers, the distribution of the abilities of the candidates is nearly the same across sessions. This assumption is reasonable because the number of candidates appearing for the test papers is large, the number of candidates allotted to the sessions are comparable, and the procedure for allocation of candidates to the sessions is random.

The normalised marks of the j^{th} candidate in the i^{th} session, denoted by \hat{M}_{ij} , are computed as

where

M_{ij} is the actual marks obtained by the j^{th} candidate in the i^{th} session

\bar{M}_t^g is the average marks of the top 0.1% of the candidates considering all sessions

M_q^g is the sum of mean and standard deviation of marks of the candidates in the paper considering all sessions

\bar{M}_{ti} is the average marks of the top 0.1% of the candidates in the i^{th} session and

M_{iq} is the sum of the mean and standard deviation of marks in the i^{th} session.

Qualifying in GATE 2024 does not guarantee admission to a postgraduate program or scholarship/financial assistance. Admitting institutes may conduct additional tests or interviews for final selection of candidates.

Graduate Aptitude Test in Engineering (GATE) 2024 was organised by Indian Institute of Science, Bengaluru, on behalf of National Coordination Board (NCB) - GATE for the Department of Higher Education, Ministry of Education (MoE), Government of India.

A candidate is considered qualified if the marks secured are greater than or equal to the qualifying marks mentioned for the category, for which a valid category certificate, if applicable, must be produced along with this Score Card.

This Score Card is valid
up to 31st March 2027.

GATE SCORE COMPUTATION

The GATE 2024 score is calculated using the formula

$$\text{GATE Score} = S_q + (S_t - S_q) \frac{(M - M_q)}{(M_t - M_q)}$$

where

M is the normalised marks obtained by the candidate in the paper mentioned on the GATE 2024 Score Card

M_q is the qualifying marks for general category candidates in the paper

M_t is the mean of marks of top 0.1% or top 10 (whichever is larger) of all the candidates who appeared for the test paper (i.e., including all sessions)

$S_q = 350$, is the score assigned to M_q

$S_t = 900$, is the score assigned to M_t

M_q is 25 marks (out of 100) or $\mu + \sigma$, whichever is greater. Here μ is the mean and σ is the standard deviation of marks of all the candidates who appeared for the test paper.

SCORE CARD

COMPUTATION OF NORMALISED MARKS

Computer Science and Information Technology (CS) and Civil Engineering (CE) were conducted in two sessions in GATE 2024. For such multisession papers, a suitable normalisation is applied to take into account any variation in the difficulty levels of the question papers across sessions. The normalisation is done based on the assumption that, in multisession GATE papers, the distribution of the abilities of the candidates is nearly the same across sessions. This assumption is reasonable because the number of candidates appearing for the test papers is large, the number of candidates allotted to the sessions are comparable, and the procedure for allocation of candidates to the sessions is random.

The normalised marks of the j^{th} candidate in the i^{th} session, denoted by \hat{M}_{ij} , are computed as

where

M_{ij} is the actual marks obtained by the j^{th} candidate in the i^{th} session

\bar{M}_t^g is the average marks of the top 0.1% of the candidates considering all sessions

M_q^g is the sum of mean and standard deviation of marks of the candidates in the paper considering all sessions

\bar{M}_{ti} is the average marks of the top 0.1% of the candidates in the i^{th} session and

M_{iq} is the sum of the mean and standard deviation of marks in the i^{th} session.

Qualifying in GATE 2024 does not guarantee admission to a postgraduate program or scholarship/financial assistance. Admitting institutes may conduct additional tests or interviews for final selection of candidates.

Dear Mr. Kairon:

Congratulations! We are very pleased to offer you admission to our PhD Program in Physics at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign for the Fall 2024 semester. We are offering you financial support in the form of a nine-month teaching assistantship for the 2024-25 academic year, followed by a two-month summer assistantship in either teaching or research. Included in this offer are a full tuition waiver, a partial fee waiver, and a stipend of $28,028 for the 11 months. If our recommendation for your admission is approved by the Graduate College at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, you will receive an official offer of admission from the Graduate College. Please note that this funding offer may be subject to revision if you accept major award funding from other sources. For details about assistantships and fellowships, please see the Graduate College Handbook (Part I, Chapter 8; <https://grad.illinois.edu/sites/grad.illinois.edu/files/pdfs/handbook.pdf>).

To assist you in your decision about graduate schools, we invite you to visit our department during our in-person Open House weekend on March 22 - 23, 2024. The Open House will give you the opportunity to sample the rich intellectual environment that our department offers to future scientists. If you are able to come, you will be reimbursed up to $600 toward your travel costs when you visit our department during our open house weekend. Please fill out the information at this link so that we know you will be visiting:

<https://my.physics.illinois.edu/physics-open-house-2024>

The deadline to sign up for the open house is March 11, 2024.

New students for our Fall 2024 class should plan to arrive at the Illinois campus by August 8, 2024, in order to participate in new student orientation activities, such as grad course advising and staff/faculty introductions. In order for us to place you appropriately in a teaching assignment, international students who are not native speakers of English need to take either the TOEFL iBT speaking exam (it is highly recommended that you complete the online exam before arriving), or the IELTS academic speaking exam, or our locally administered English Proficiency Interview by early August 2024. Please follow this link to see your options.

http://cte.illinois.edu/testing/oral_eng/main.html

The EPI is typically offered on the UIUC campus during the first week of August. Your score on these tests will not impact your offer of admission. However, your score will be used to determine your teaching assistantship duties.

If our recommendation for your admission is approved by the Graduate College at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, you will receive an official offer of admission from the Graduate College. Please inform us of your decision regarding this offer of admission at the following link by April 15, 2024.

<https://my.physics.illinois.edu/grad/offers.asp?D820AB03-441D-4A2F-B655-DFD655C5BE07>

This deadline is in accordance with the resolution of the Council of Graduate Schools (<https://cgsnet.org/april-15-resolution>). Although this offer is valid until April 15, 2024, we encourage you to let us know your decision as soon as possible so that we may make the best use of our resources and finalize our plans for the coming academic year. Once we receive your acceptance, our Graduate Admissions Office will send you the official admissions paperwork. More specific details will be sent out from the Physics Department after our Fall 2024 class is finalized.

If you accept this offer, then during your first five years of enrollment, you are guaranteed funding in the form of a tuition-waiver-generating appointment in the Fall and Spring semesters, provided that the following conditions hold:

- (i) you are in your original degree program of study,
- (ii) you make satisfactory academic progress and maintain Good Academic Standing, and
- (iii) you perform satisfactorily and meet the obligations of any assistantships that you hold.

The five-years of guaranteed funding will involve some combination of an assistantship (e.g., a research, teaching, or other appointment) and/or a fellowship and will include a full tuition waiver, as well as a partial fee waiver covering service fees, library technology fees, the academic facilities maintenance fund assessment, and health services fees including vision insurance, dental insurance, and partial payment of the health insurance fee. You are responsible for paying other assessed fees. For details about assistantships, please see the Graduate College web site at <https://grad.illinois.edu/assistantships>.

Note that in addition to this five-year funding guarantee, the Department of Physics has always been able to provide physics students with research or teaching assistantships for the duration of the students' time in the Physics PhD program, provided that the students are making satisfactory progress in the Physics PhD program.

If there are any changes to your postal address, e-mail address, or telephone number, please let us know. A short e-mail note to Nicolette Elam at nelam@illinois.edu is best. If you have further questions about this offer, feel free to give us a call at 217-333-3645.

Finally, let me congratulate you on a superb undergraduate career. I very much look forward to meeting you during our Open House in March and to your positive response to our offer.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE

1. Candidates who participated in XAT 2024 can access and download their scorecards until December 31, 2024.
2. "Quantitative Aptitude and Data Interpretation," "Verbal Ability and Logical Reasoning," and "Decision Making" percentiles represent your relative ranking among all the candidates who took these sections. Your percentile score shows where you stand compared to others in these specific areas.
3. The total percentile, on the other hand, reflects your overall performance in the XAT 2024 exam. It ranks you among all the candidates who appeared for the exam, considering your performance across all sections except General Knowledge. It's crucial to note that General Knowledge percentage and percentile are calculated separately from the other sections. These GK scores do not contribute to your overall "total" percentage or percentile. They are evaluated independently.
4. A candidate's performance in XAT is just one of the multiple factors considered when evaluating their eligibility for admission to XLRI or any other XAT member institutes. Each institute, following its unique policies and criteria, independently determines how to utilize XAT Scores in the admission process.
5. It is recommended that XAT Scores be used by institutions only for selecting candidates to their Post Graduate / Fellow Programme (s) in Management.
